

FGCCFL GRAND FINALS

Topic: Resolved: In the United States, right-to-work laws do more harm than good.

INSTRUCTIONS

- IMPORTANT: In CFL, sides are set unless otherwise indicated. The Pro team always speaks first.
- Judges should decide the round as it is debated, not based on their personal beliefs.
- Debaters should advocate or reject the resolution in a manner clear to the non-specialist citizen judge (i.e., jury). Clash of ideas is essential to debate.
- Debaters should display solid logic and reasoning, advocate a position, utilize evidence, and communicate clear ideas.
- Neither the Pro nor the Con is permitted to offer a plan or counterplan, defined as a formalized, comprehensive proposal for implementation. Rather, they should offer reasoning to support a position of advocacy. Debaters may offer generalized, practical solutions.
- Crossfire time should be dedicated to questions and answers rather than reading evidence. Evidence may be referred to extemporaneously.
- No new arguments may be introduced in the Final Focus; however, debaters may include new evidence to support prior arguments.

Award points on a per-team basis. The points you award MUST correlate with your decision (NO low-point wins). Remember, this is debate and not related individual oration. All questions concerning rules or misconduct are to be brought to the Tab Room immediately after the conclusion of the round.

We are all influenced by implicit bias, or the stereotypes that unconsciously affect our decisions. When judging, our implicit biases negatively impact students who are traditionally marginalized and disenfranchised. Before writing comments or making a decision, please take a moment to reflect on any biases that may impact your decision-making process.
